HELPING PEOPLE MANAGE THEIR ENERGY

About Dina

Dina Vitantonio is a renowned energy therapist, intuitive coach, author, and professional speaker. She is on a mission to transform and ignite others through cultivating balance and self empowerment. With a gifted penchant to acutely blend metaphysical science with practical methodologies, Dina brings a mainstream approach of self-discovery to the masses.

Dina has won accolades for her work correlating our relationships to personal energy and struggle with the greater connection to the collective consciousness. Her ability to tap into a higher awareness within each of us is profoundly helpful in unearthing our own mind-body-spirit connectivity. Dina believes by engaging in the principles of energy we gain the ability to unleash our greatest potential, embrace our true 'authentic selves,' and trigger a positive ripple effect for ourselves and others.

Methodology

Dina has always felt a steadfast need to generate impactful change, fervently driving the true innate human desire to 'shed light' upon others and help raise the collective consciousness of humanity. Her gift is truly sparking a sustainable mindset of change in behavior, perception, and personal energy. On a deeper level, Dina's work brings to the forefront a fundamental understanding that each person has the power to harness their own healing and that of the world in which we live.

Utilizing ancient wisdom and her gift of divine intuition, she leaves an incredible 'footprint' upon everyone she meets: helping them to seek truth, balance and change. Dina's methods are unique and draw from proprietary and sacred practices where she honors each individual's needs and special talents.
